Theme: A41 Constitutional and legislative framework

Recommendation	Position	Full list of themes	Amnesty International's assessment/comments on level of implementation
134.67 Provide reassurance that any proposed British Bill of Rights would complement rather than replace the incorporation of the European Convention on Human Rights in Northern Ireland law and acknowledging this is a primary matter for the Northern Ireland Executive and Assembly — that a Bill of Rights for Northern Ireland to reflect the particular circumstances of Northern Ireland should be pursued to provide continuity, clarity and consensus on the legal framework for human rights there (Ireland); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The proposed new Bill of Rights for the UK would undermine effective incorporation of the ECHR in domestic law.
134.77 Ensure that changes in the national legislation affecting the Human Rights Act do not result in weakening human rights protection mechanisms in the country (Belarus); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The new 2021 Bill of Rights proposals would significantly weaken human rights protection mechanisms in domestic law and create a gap between those and the UK's obligations under the ECHR.
134.74 Continue its commitment to international human rights obligations and standards and ensure that the new bill of rights is drafted through broad-based consultations and embraces no less protection of human rights (Thailand); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A12 Acceptance of international norms A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The new 2021 Bill of Rights proposals will undermine the effective incorporation of ECHR rights in domestic law, weaken commitment to that framework and reduce domestic rights protection standards. Consultation with civil society has been poor, with no engagement whatsoever before detailed proposals were presented.

Recommendation	Position	Full list of themes	Amnesty International's assessment/comments on level of implementation
134.68 Ensure that the legislative changes, if adopted, keep the same level of human rights protection as provided by the Human Rights Act, as advised by the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the United Nations treaty bodies (Kazakhstan); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A22 Cooperation with treaty bodies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. Proposed legislative changes to replace the Human Rights Act with a Bill of Rights will significantly reduce domestic rights protection levels.
134.69 Maintain the legal effects, scope and effectiveness of the Human Rights Act in the adoption of new legislation (Kenya); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. Proposed new Bill of Rights legislation to replace the Human Rights Act will reduce the legal impact, scope and effectiveness of domestic rights protections.
134.70 Ensure that any legislative modification, such as the enactment of the Bill of Rights, maintains the level of protection that the current Human Rights Act guarantees (Mexico); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The proposed legislative replacement of the Human Rights Act with a Bill of Rights will significantly reduce the level of rights protection in the UK.
134.71 Ensure that the proposed new Bill of Rights to replace the Human Rights Act, if adopted, does not remove or weaken any human rights protection granted under the current Act (Namibia); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The proposed new Bill of Rights will remove and significantly weaken rights protection under the current Human Rights Act.
134.72 Take all necessary steps to prevent the new British Bill of Rights from leading to a decreased level of human rights protection (Portugal); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. Recommendation	Position	Full list of themes	Amnesty International's assessment/comments on level of implementation
134.73 Ensure that any possible reform of the 1998 Human Rights Act has no impact on the scope of protection or the access to the remedies under the European Convention on Human Rights (Switzerland); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The proposals in the new Bill of Rights include replacing incorporated ECHR rights with less protective domestic rights, severing the legislative link with the Strasbourg Court and significantly reducing both the scope of protection and remedies available to victims in the UK.
134.75 Make sure that, in case the proposals for a British Bill of Rights are realized, the current level of human rights protection provided by the Human Rights Act of 1998 is maintained and improved (Ukraine); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. The new 2021 proposals for a Bill of Rights will significantly reduce the level of human rights protection well below that provided by the Human Rights Act 1998.
134.78 In the context of the withdrawal from the European Union, ensure that human rights achievements are preserved in the future framework of human rights protection in the United Kingdom and the future status of European citizens residing in the United Kingdom (France); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A43 Human rights policies Affected persons: - general - non-citizens	Not implemented. The UK explicitly cut out the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and general principles of EU law from the body of domestically maintained EU law after withdrawal. The proposed new framework for domestic human rights legislation will further reduce protections and resile from achievements to date.
134.76 Carry out extensive consultations with civil society related to the repeal of the 1998 Human Rights Act. In view of the process of leaving the European Union, ensure that any new legislation aims at strengthening human rights in the entire jurisdictions of the country (Uzbekistan); Source of position: A/HRC/36/9/Add.1 - Para. 3	Noted	A41 Constitutional and legislative framework A61 Cooperation with civil society Affected persons: - general	Not implemented. No proper consultation was initiated in developing the new Bill of Rights proposals presented to the public in 2021, with only a short inadequate period afterwards for comment. In the process of leaving the EU, the key human rights protections from EU law were explicitly excluded from domestic law.
